EXPLORE ALABAMA

Here is where beauty, history, and adventure all come together. Travel to the best cities in Alabama and have a once in a lifetime experience. It's a state where each town has a story and each day brings new discoveries you'll always remember.

From her sugar-sand beaches and crystal-blue water, to her mountains shrouded in early morning fog, Alabama has so much to offer. No matter what your passions are, Alabama has a little bit of something for everyone. If the great outdoors is your cup of tea, Alabama has 26 state parks perfect for hiking, biking, zip lining and more. If music strikes a chord with you, few places in America compare to the musical history made in Muscle Shoals. For foodies, Alabama is famous for her take on BBQ and Gulf seafood. For sports fanatics, Talladega Super Speedway and the abundance of college football will quench your thirst for adrenaline. For history buffs, Alabama is rich in Native American and Civil War history, all in all everyone can find something to fuel their interests in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM:

Birmingham is the largest city in Alabama and has a lot to offer. Birmingham has great food, ranging from fast casual to fine dining. Birmingham also has great museums and attractions, ranging from civil rights museums to Barber motorsports speedway or the Birmingham zoo.

MOBILE:

Mobile represents the best of southern hospitality, delicious soul food, and unforgettable historical landmarks. Experience Mardi Gras, listen to live music and watch the brilliantly colored floats drive by for a once in a lifetime event. Do not leave without visiting the USS Alabama as it celebrates its 50th year at sea.

MONTGOMERY:

Montgomery is the second largest city in the state. Today, Montgomery is known for its renaissance of historic downtown and redevelopment of the riverfront. Montgomery is a city rich in history, yet clearly focused on the future. Once the capital of the Confederacy, Montgomery grew to become the center of the Civil Rights Movement.

HUNTSVILLE:

The Rocket City is Alabama's fourth largest, nestled in north-central Alabama and part of the Cumberland Plateau. Huntsville is home to the U.S. Space and Rocket Center and many parks, museums, and gardens. With the second largest metropolis in the state of Alabama, there is always something going on, find your next adventure in Huntsville.
